Miss Etheridge Defends.

Miss Fibrence Etheridge rose to the defense of the suffrage cause and declared, that the convention could approve the great principal of equal rights for which labor stood, without paying any attention to picketing.

She asked the delegates to take the dignified stand of the President and ignore the pickets. They did as To Co 50% a not represent the majority in the sur-frage cause, she said, and the con-vention by noticing them in a reso-lution would give them just what they were seeking—publicity. The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during disturbed conditions of the mousey or stock markets. First deed of trust notes (first mortages), well secured on real setate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt-edge," investments, and they do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cerporations for their stability. We can supply such lavestments in assounts from 556 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loans and Investments."
